

Lucero Olive Oil Product Donation Guidelines

Thank you for your inquiry regarding a product donation from Lucero Olive Oil for your event.

In keeping with our core values, Lucero Olive Oil will support organizations and programs that understand healthy food choices are important to our communities. We will partner with organizations that promote healthy and nutritious diets and agriculture and educational pursuits that fit that within this mission. We will donate products to local organizations that make a difference for our employees, their families, our consumers and the community in which we live and work.

To request a donation, please follow the guidelines below:

- A Product Donation Request Form must be completed for a donation to be considered.
- Please allow at least 30 days prior to your event when submitting a product donation request.
- Please send the Product Donation Request Form via email or mail to:
